“ DEKALB COUNTY (AL) SPORTS HALL OF FAME 2006: Gary Coker
Born December 11, 1943 - A pioneer of high school sports coverage, Gary Coker was part of a three-man team, who brought changes to not only sports sections in DeKalb County and the Sand Mountain area but across North Alabama. A 1961 graduate of Geraldine High School, Gary began covering Geraldine and Crossville High School sports in 1968. Soon enough, his articles were picked up by daily newspapers, increasing high school sports coverage across North Alabama. His writings have carried from local schools to the University of Alabama head football coach Paul “Bear” Bryant’s, and to interviews with NASCAR racer Richard Petty. Still dedicated to local sports almost 40 years later, it’s unlikely anyone his age has seen more games or written more stories about DeKalb County teams. As a youngster,

Gary played on Crossville's very first Little League Baseball team, and later not only coached but was the director of Crossville Dixie Youth Baseball. He played in his first independent baseball game, when he was 12 and played for over 16 years. He also played independent basketball for 12 years, and the softball team he coached and played on for 13 years won over 800 games.
