“ My uncle Willie will forever live in my memory and heart. What I'll remember most is the way he made you feel. Willie always found a way to make you feel special. Willie always found a way to make you feel good. As a young kid growing up and now a man growing older, I've always felt that way. Willie always made me feel important. I'll never forget that, and I'll never forget those times I spent with him. I will miss him greatly.
